Appreciation

Joe Lynn, who served as general chairman for the Christmas Party given for our Buddies at the Veterans Hospital, Muskogee, last Wednesday night, wishes to express his sincere appreciation and thanks to each and every member who helped in any way to make the party a success.

Appreciation and "white orchids" are also extended to those individuals and firms that contributed so generously in time, gifts, or cooperation.

Legionnaires Eck King, "Chick" Woodard had the boys constantly in an uproar of laughter, with their "antics." Jimmy Wilson's Catfish Band, Ray Hillman and his orchestra and the Police Quartette furnished the music and singing.

All in all it was a fine party and the Boys at the hospital forgot their troubles for the time being, and really enjoyed the annual visit of Joe Carson Post and its Auxiliary Units during the Christmas season.

America Must Be Defended

LYNN U. STAMBAUGH
National Commander,
The American Legion

An embattled America today needs every man and woman of The American Legion.

Again we count it a privilege to serve the country we love.

A few hours after the outbreak of hostilities in the Pacific, your national commander pledged the unqualified support of The American Legion to our government.

We pledged that support at Milwaukee in September. We reiterated that pledge on that fateful December 7, 1941.

We pledged our best efforts for national unity at Milwaukee. The menace which confronts our very existence today makes doubly important a completely loyal and devoted America.

All controversy as to why we were put in our present situation should be forgotten as we follow the lead of our government.

Nothing must be allowed to impede the full productive capacities of this nation. Management and labor must see eye to eye in this regard.

As a people we are on the threshold of an era which will require great sacrifices in the part of each of us.

Our ordinary round of individual daily tasks will be interfered with necessarily in each community. Legionnaires will be glad to put in extra hours doing their share to aid in protecting America. Numerous are the

for

Tulsa's Underprivileged Children
Tulsa Squadron, Sons of The American Legion, assisted by members of Joe Carson Post and its Auxiliaries, will be host to approximately 1,000 underprivileged children of Tulsa and Tulsa county, at the Legion Hut, Christmas Day.

Turkey and all the "trimmings" will be served from 11:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m., and after the dinner, each child will receive a gift. The gifts consist of toys, dolls, fruit and clothing. Then they will enjoy entertainment. Joe Lynn will officiate as Santa Claus.

Committee members are: James Sartin, SAL chairman; Paul C. Wheeler, co-chairman for the dinner; and Joe Payne. The Legion will be represented by Joe Herman, Commander; Leslie L. Spain, Elmer Orr and C. O. Gittinger. T. D. Murray will be in charge of the "kitchen detail."

Members of each organization will be active in all of the many and various "details."

Bill Pate, Captain of the Squadron, will head the reception committee.

jobs to be done. Not only the Legion but all patriotic citizens will aid in the doing thereof.

We of the Legion need to tell America that there can be no easy path to victory.

There must be no war of nerves in the United States. There must be no occasion for panic, for indecision, for hysteria. There must be a great deal of firmness, of courage, of willingness to sacrifice.

Facing the brutal realities of life, we of America must go forward in all our strength, must pay the price cheerfully, and win the victory, whatever the cost in blood and treasure. America must be defended!

BY MADALINE A. GALLOWAY

Mrs. Paul C. Wheeler, Unit President announces the next regular business meeting will be held January 6, 8 p. m., at the Hut.

With the beginning of the new year, the Unit will meet each Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the Hut, to do Red Cross sewing and knitting, the first meeting scheduled for January 6th.

This will cancel the bridge luncheons that have been held on the second Tuesday of each month. The public is invited to join in this work. Each person can take a covered dish or sandwich for lunch, and coffee will be furnished by the Auxiliary. Mrs. Walter A. Jacobs, Unit Community Service chairman will be in charge of the activity, and requests that any one who will volunteer to help in this worthwhile program, kindly call her at 4-8562. The need for workers is urgent. Why not call her now and signify your willingness to help?

*****

At Tuesday night's business meeting, members voted to invest $1,000 in National Defense bonds.

*****

Miss Dorothy McCune is sponsoring another broadcast over KVOO, Friday, December 26th at 4:30 p.m. Jennie Stewart of Bartlesville, life board member of the Department, will represent the Auxiliary and the interview will be on rehabilitation.

*****

In last week's issue of the News, in giving the names of the members who were on the Christmas Party committee, the name of Mrs. S. J. Burnham should have been included in the games committee of which Mrs. Travis Bogue was in charge.

*****

During the holidays, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Benton will have as a guest in their home, Paul Masters, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Wheeler will have as their guest, Donald Port. These are the adopted sons of the Unit. Hubert Whittaker, the adopted son of the Legion will be entertained in the home of L. V. Lukenbill. These boys are attending the Home school in Ponca City.

Mrs. Mike Saxon and her team of ten members who worked on the recent membership contest, were hostesses at a dinner party for the winning team at the home of Mrs. Paul C. Wheeler, December 11th at 6 p.m. The table was beautiful with lovely linens, china and silver, and a gorgeous floral centerpiece, the gift of Mrs. M. C. Roberts, Membership chairman. The dinner was perfect, with baked Virginia ham as the piece de resistance. After the guests had been properly banqueted, everything was removed from the table, and the girls brought out a cloth that evidently had seen much better days. Their food was brought on in pans and kettles, and the centerpiece, a work of art created by Mrs. E. B. Benton, Department First Vice President, was fashioned of cabbage, carrots and green onions. This was all a part of the evening's fun. After dinner, some of the guests played bridge, while others sat around and visited, but everybody agreed that the losing team was made up of real thoroughbreds.

Junior Auxiliary

Instead of the regular Junior business meeting Monday night, Mrs. E. B. Mitchel is entertaining the girls and their mothers at a Christmas party in her home, 1948 East 14th street, from 8 until 10 o'clock. The girls are each requested to bring an orange, apple or candy bar to be used in the Christmas basket they are preparing for the same family who received the Thanksgiving basket from them. In this family there are several children, who would not have much of a Christmas if it were not for the thoughtfulness of the Juniors.

*****

December 29th is the date of the Christmas formal dance, in which the Juniors and SAL boys join forces. The dance will be at the Hut at 8:30 p. m.
