By PAUL C. WHEELER

Cheer up, all ye Sons of the Legion. Jim Sartin tells me to help put on the 1941 Fathers' and Sons' Banquet, Friday, December 12th.

So every eligible and prospective Son and his Pop begin making plans for a real thriller.

Let us show the rest of the world how a "bang-up" get together fiesta should be done this time.

This show marks the starting point to a goal of 100 members, which if attained, Chairman Jim promises the drum corps a trip to New Orleans and a chance at the National Championship.

Get busy everybody, and see that Dad keeps that date open.
More next week.

Active Duty

T. D. Murray in charge of the "kitchen detail" wishes to thank Legionnaires Eck King, Joe Payne, Barney Paschal, C. O. Gittinger, Elmer Orr, N. H. Davis, Hubert Lancaster and Fred Jarvis for their help and co-operation in serving the Bixby High School Alumni banquet at the Hut last Saturday night.

To Legionnaires Roy Lind, Frank S. Hugill, Bob Peacock, Harold Beal, Elmer Orr, Jimmie King, Eck King, Hubert Lancaster, Ray P. Ross and Mrs. Elmer Orr, for their active co-operation during the Open House at the Legion Hut.

R. M. (Dick) Broach and Paul Wheeler reported to Legionnaire Slauf at Sears. Armistice Day, and blew Taps at 11:00 a. m., while the entire personnel stood at attention.

Comrades Virgil C. Eby and Earl E. Larson were admitted to the Veterans hospital during the past week.

BY MADALINE A. GALLOWAY

Mrs. Paul C. Wheeler, Unit President, announces a regular business meeting for Tuesday, November 18th, 8 p. m., at the Hut.

Our president is looking forward to a large attendance of members at the luncheon, Thursday, November 20th at the Tulsa Hotel, honoring Lynn U. Stambaugh, National Commander of The American Legion. All members are invited, but reservations must be made with Adjutant Anderson not later than Wednesday noon.

Mrs. M. C. Roberts, Membership Chairman reports the Unit now has 105 members who have paid their 1942 dues. At the request of the Captains, Mrs. Mike Saxon and Mrs. Don Kile, she has extended the drive to Tuesday, November 18th, which will give the teams an extra week in which to complete their work.

Our readers will recall that Department Headquarters are sponsoring a contest, wherein all Units are known as "observation posts." Our President is our "Chief Observer," while our Membership Chairman is the "Officer in Charge." Any team member getting 10 members will be known as a runner or outside messenger; 15 members, a cadet; 25 members, a pilot; 50 members, an ace. So don't forget that Tuesday night "tells the story" about whether any of we workers ever get to "wear wings."

And now to the very sad part of my little story: the said "Officer in Charge," meaning Annette, says the losing team is to be hosts to the winning team, at a party, date and plans to be announced later.

The Unit has a team working on the Red Cross Roll Call, under the supervision of our loyal and hard-working Community Service Chairman, Mrs. Water A. Jacobs. Names of those who served on this activity will be published next week.

Junior Auxiliary

The Juniors will hold their regular business meeting Monday, at 7:30 p. m., at the Hut.

Eight and Forty

HUSBANDS AND SWEETHEARTS

Mrs. Cora Bates, La Petit Chepeau, announces that Tulsa County Solon No. 214 of the Eight and Forty, are to do themselves proud, Wednesday, November 19th, at 6:30 p. m., when they invite their husbands and sweethearts to be guests at a covered dish dinner at the Hut.

Sam Craig, Legionnaire, has kindly consented to show his moving pictures of the National Convention, which will add greatly to the evening's entertainment.

National Program

Indianapolis, Ind.—A nine-point program of specific national defense activities for the 11,780 posts and 1,103,000 members of The American Legion for immediate action was recommended to the commanders and adjutants of the 58 department's by Warren H. Atherton, Stockton, Cal., chairman of the national defense committee at the closing session of their 1941 conference at national headquarters here, November 5.

Appreciation

Joe Herman, Post Commander, and Joe Lynn, who served as chairman for the Armistice Day parade, wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to each and every indi-vidual, or organization that helped to make the parade one of inspiring and outstanding significance.

Also to the Guard of Honor of our Post Colors: J. Earl Simpson and Kenneth King, color bearers; Jim Hunt and Jim Sartin, color guards.

The parade was a success in all ways and unstinted praise is due the parade committee and the parade chairman for their efforts and time in preparing all arrangements and details.

Commander Herman congratulates each and every member of the com-mittee.

Snooks Stafford, an active and loyal Legionnaire, left for California last week and thereby Joe Carson Post loses a real worker in all the vital activities of the Post.

Snooks is a past commander of Joe Carson Post, and was serving his sec-ond term on the executive committee; was County vice-commander and had been offered an appointment as De-partment Junior Baseball chairman.

The members of the Post wish Le-gionnaire Stafford the best of luck and assure him that whenever he re-turns he will be received with open arms and true comradeship. We high-ly recommend Snooks to the Depart-ment of California. Our loss is their gain.
