MEMORIALS OR MOCKERY?

By GREGG CHANCELLER

On this Armistice Day we will honor in memory the valiant men of our nation whose death in battle was everlasting life for that cause for which they fought and died—the cause of the democratic vary of life.

The guns of war have been silenced for quite some ? now. Peace once again reigns over a battle scarred world still bleeding from its wounds inflicted by the daggers of power, greed and hate. The omnous sound of taps still rings in our ears. The return of

The ominous sound of taps still rings in our ears. The return of the fallen GI home, the honor roll in the park all echo their grim reminder of the bloody cost of it all.

From those mortal remains of "our boys" who are coming home to be honored by a grateful country comes this clear warning—DON'T LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN or it shall have all ben in vain!

No one can question our winning the war—but, WHAT ABOUT THE PLACE?

A war is never won if the cause for which it was fought is lost in a nation who will not keep faith.

Members of Carson-Wilson Post, the beautiful memorial at Boulder Park, the well-done placque at Central High School or our impressive memorial services for those killed in action are but mockery to our honored dead if behind them is not the living memorial of an enduring peace. And, not one of us can bask in the laurels of our part in the war or wars if a single battle scarred veteran receives anything but what is due him—THE BEST

The down payment for the price of peace was nobly said at Okinawa, Normandy, Salerno, Iwo Jima, Anzio, Corregidor, Pearl Harbor as evidenced by the recent return of flag-draped caskets, but, the installments must be paid by us—members of America's greatest veterans organization, the American Legion and Auxiliary.

"What are the installments?" you ask.

They are simply this:

- 1. TO MAKE SURE THAT THIS NATION SHALL NEVER BE CAUGHT UNPREPARED AGAIN. This will mean your full understanding and support of the American Legion—backed U. M. T. plan which is to discourage any nation from attacking us.
- 2. TO MAKE SURE THAT EVERY PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY, OR FINANCIALLY HANDICAPPED VETERAN IS PROPERLY CARED FOR. This will mean your full support and co-operation in the poppy and "Gifts for the Yanks" campaigns. And, also your confidence in and co-operation with our Service Officer, Frank Crowley.
- 3. TO MAKE SURE THAT WE KEEP AMERICA—AMERICAN! This will mean that we must constantly be on guard against those who would undermine and seek to control our government by any method—radio, movies, newspaper, or a soap box on the corner. I might add here that it would be wise to keep an eye on those who too broadly interpret the the Constitution (namely certain Hollywood writers.)

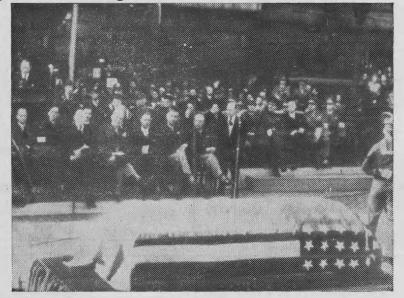

Yes, Legionnaires, on this coming Armistice Day we must remember that the atom bomb is no longer a comic strip creation, it is a terrifying reality that has changed an entire world of thought in the arts of peace and war. We may use this force to build a world of unprecedented peace and prosperity or it may be used to destroy civilization itself!

We Legionnaires must make certain the world takes the path to peace.

In honor to our fallen heroes we must make this solemn pledge that the peace will be one of reality . . . BACKED WITH THE POWER TO PRESERVE IT.

We shall not break faith with those who sleep in Flanders Fields.

PREPARE NOW OR FACE NEW WAR, FORMER WAR SECRETARY WARNS

By ROBERT PATTERSON. Former United States Secretary of War

Wake up again, America! New York can be the next Pearl Harbor. Or Pittsburgh where they make the steel. Or Detroit, where tanks and airplane engines are built in wartime. Or Washington, where a properly placed annihilation weapon could wipe out the men who run Members of Congress, leaders of state, can make endless speeches debating whether we will or won't be attacked. They did that before Pearl Harbor. It didn't mend a shattered bone or staunch an ounce of blood when the enemy struck. It never will.

AMMUNITION FURNISHED FOR W. W. II BURIALS

According to an excerpt from a War Department Memorandum received in Department Headquarters, a supply of blank ammunition will be provided by the War Department in connection with ceremonies incident to the Burial of World War II dead.

The ammunition of not less than twenty-four rounds per ceremony, will be brought to the community by the escort who accompanies the casketed remains.

The escort will deliver the ammunition to a Legionnaire, if the American Otherwise, it may be turned over to the next of kin or his authorized representative.

Even after the lessons we should have learned at Pearl Harbor, we have no specific, detailed plans for civilian defense today against sudden attack. Proper dispersement of industry, fa-cilities for emergency treatment and for the wounded must worked out. Arrange-ments must be laid down for the evacua-tion of inhabit ants from any wrecked area. The time has come for the Army, collaborating with other government departments, to put down the plan on paper and hand it to the President. We don't know when we will have to use it, but if and when the times comes, we'll need it bad and fast.

There is no adequate military protection against the atomic bomb in existence today. Many of the new war weapons can produce havoc and mass death in the very heart of areas bristling with the best military equipment science can provide. The best—the only—defense today lies in our power to strike back fast and terribly if any enemy should attack.

At my final press conference before I left the War Department late in . July, I was asked to name the greatest hurdle we had had to overcome in order to win World War Two. That was an easy one. I said the biggest hurdle had been getting the American people out of a business-as-usual attitude. It is just as important that we overcome a business-as-usual defense attitude in postwar 1947 as it was during World War Two.

If we dont, World War Three lies dead ahead.

"GIFT TO YANKS"
CAMPAIGN TO START
Christmas is drawing near and the "Yanks who gave" will not be forgotten by members of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary.

The fourth annual "Gifts to the Yanks Who Gave" campaign is expected to get underway soon. In the Oklahoma Department, the drive will be spearheaded by Legionnaire V. Hubert Smith, of McAlester, and Auxiliary member Mrs. W. A. Biggert, of El Reno.

Know Your Rights

GI loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration are making it possible for tens of thousands of southeastern veterans to buy homes of their own. Because the purchase of a home may be the largest investment former servicemen will ever make, veterans who seek GI loans should be familiar with the problems and responsibilities of home ownership under the GI bill. Unfortunately, many veterans lack adequate information about the program.

Here are the answers to a few questions about the most important aspects of the program:

Q.—What is the advantage of a guaranteed loan?

A.—A GI loan gives the veteran a credit advantage because the government guarantees a portion of the loan. The GI loan is a credit program; responsibility for the actual building of houses rests with the veteran, private contractors and architects, and lending institutions.

Q.—Who lends money under the GI bill?

A.—Private institutions lend the money. The VA guarantees a portion of the loan, usually half of it.

Enlistment Drop Disturbs Army

Washington, D. C .- The Army General Staff is greatly disturbed by a further drop in enlistments. Although Chief of Staff Dwight D. Eisenhower and army procurement officials have been concerned for sometime over fail-ure to enlist 30,000 men a month, they felt that the situation might improve.

This optimism was dispelled when reports from the field showed that enlistments totaled only 21,159 during September. This was 1,967 short of the August figure.

The M. M. Eberts Post 1 of The American Legion at Little Rock, Ark., has completed plans for a $125,000 modern clubhouse.

ARMISTICE DAY MESSAGE

By JAMES F. O'Neil, Natl. Com., The American Legion

America will observe Armistice Day this year amid scenes of sad homecomings of the hero dead of World War II. They are the last tragic proof that our victory in World War I over the forces of tyranny never got beyond the armistice stage. We failed to convert the military victory of World War I into enduring peace. All that the precious sacrifices of that war bought for us was a new short lease on our freedoms. They did not prevent the need for the sacrifices of World War II because of the failure of us, the living, to finish the task for which the heroes of 1917-18 died.

Today we are facing a parallel situation. Our military victory in World War II threatens again to become just another armistice, one that may be shorter than the other. It assuredly will become so if we, the living, do not follow through in winning the peace.

Peace like war cannot be won by the weak.

Our task is to build the strength of our freedom commensurate to the perils that surround it. That means we must be strong in faith in America, strong in national unity and possessed of a fighting power that will at all times make it dangerous to tinker with our liberty and our independence.

There is no better occasion in which to re-dedicate ourselves to this task than on Armistice Day when our memories revolve in tribute and affection about the brave men and women who died in defense of American in two world wars.

PACT FOR PEACE

By MRS. WENDELL WILLKIE

Two and a half years ago, when newsreels exposing the unbelievable horrors of Nazi concentration camps were shown in theatres throughout the United States, a single thought came into the minds of all of us—"This must never happen again!"

We now have the opportunity to put this conviction into action by supporting the United Nations in its protests against such barbarism. The UN Secretariat has finished drafting the Convention for the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide, the deliberate wiping out of a race or group of human beings.

Under the terms of the Convention being considered by the General Assembly at Lake Success, individual countries would be given the power to seize and punish any criminals guilty of genocide who are captured in their territory. An International Crominal Tribunal, similar to the Nuremberg Tribunal, may also be set up to punish flagrant cases of the crime.

There can be no question in our minds as to the vital need for this pact. The persecution of minorities is like an infectious disease; it is seldom confined to a single group of victims. In Germany, Hitler did not stop with the persecution of the Jews. One by one, Catholics, Protestants, trade unionists and all liberal Germans were supressed by the Nazis.

But here in America we have always felt the necessity for protecting the rights of minorities and for the strengthening of their basic human rights. Wendell Willkie I think very aptly expressed this thought when he said:

"It has always impressed me that, quite apart from any reasons of humanitarianism or justice or any sentiment regarding the protection of the weak by the strong, it is only common sense to safeguard jealously the rights of minorities. For minorities are rich assets of a democracy, assets which no totalitarian government can afford. Dictatorships must, of necessity, fear and suppress them. But within the tolerance of a democracy, minorities are the constant spring of new ideas, stimulating new thought and action, the constant source of new vigor."

Mrs. Wendell Willkie

We cannot afford to let down now, even though the wartime pictures have faded somewhat from memory. Rather we must tell our representatives to give their immediate, full support to the passage and enforcement of the Convention to Outlaw Genocide, and must encourage others to do likewise.

On the domestic front, the Legion is having the same troubles as the Veterans of Foreign Wars and other vet organizations, maintaining WW II swollen membership quotas and adjusting ever-rising operating costs to declining revenue.

The financial and membership prob-lems of the Legion are causing real concern within Legion leadership but are not sufficiently serious to warrant any genuine pessimism over the fu-ture of the Legion nor do they stem from any decrease in the popularity of the Legion as a veterans' organiza-

Membership rolls at present list 3-259,659 names, 76,897 less than at end of 1946, and 610,000 less than quota set for Legion posts for 1948.

Telegraphic roll call this week to National Commander James F. O'Neil at Indianapolis termed a "disappointment" by O'Neil.

Legion's financial difficulties result from failure of thousands of members to continue paying dues from increased costs and loss of advertising revenue in connection with publication of the Leaders claim magazine is $750,000 in the red for past year, although members of Publications Committee insist this is a false figure, that magazine always has paid its own way, but in past year failed to meet budget estimates.

Concern over fact that increased paper costs will boost cost of publishing in coming year by $400,000 brought some pressure at Legion's national committee meetings in Indianapolis this week to discontinue publication, but no such action will be taken.

Meanwhile with William Doyle of Malden, Mass., chairman of the Legion Legislative Committee and recognized "kinkmaker" still prevented by serious illness from participating in Legion policy-making, etc. and with no "crown prince" ready to step into his shoes, the Legion is floundering along many fronts.

Observers at Indianapolis impressed with fact that politics plays bigger, more vital role in Legion affairs than Harry W. Colmery of Topeka, Kan., past national commander, and probably hardest working Legionnaire in history, growing in stature with membership and other leaders as each year passes, will continue to wield tremendous influence in Legion affairs, may emerge this year as kingpin.

Legion is determined to make all-out fight for passage of universal training law by Congress before latter goes home next July, is eager to maintain big membership rolls to influence individual members of Congress with potential transport and proper party level.

Program for 1947-48 will keep Legion in national spotlight, will aid Legion leaders in efforts to hold and enlarge membership, will assure continued sta-bility, continued leadership in national and grass roots veterans' affairs.

The 40 et 8 Hallow'een dance was well attended and everyone had a grand time. There were plenty of hats and noise makers for everyone.
As usual Joe Norton had the hut very nicely decorated. Joe Norton and Geo.
Blake can really get the decorating job done. Vernon Evans won the prize for the best costumed man and Bessie

Craig won the ladies prize.
Sam Craig, Sam Burham, Lon Markham, Gus Gunn, and Ed Wells all did a fine job on the committee.

I want to thank everyone for their fine co-operation.

High Spots at Meeting

By JACOB STERNBACH
Boy Taylor, Service Officer of the State Veteran's Department, District 1, gave us an interesting talk on service work. He praised Frank Crawley's work; and stated that he wanted to get acquainted and work with us. He stressed that dropped G. I. insurance should me reinstated. He mentioned that many Veterans who have legitimate claims such as assistance, terminal leave pay, medical and/or dental care, etc, etc., for some reason or other do not apply for same, and in many cases force hardships on their dependants; Child Welfare, Emergency Aid and Emergency Loans. No Veteran need humble himself, nor feel tooproud to apply for assistance if he needs it. He closed by saying that every Veteran of every Post should become an assistant Service Officer and seek out and help these needful cases.

Comrade Joe Lynn said that the Armistice Day Parade will assemble at Sixth Street and Cheyenne at 10:45 a.m. It will start at 11:00 a.m. and last for about an hour. He made a motion that our Post go on record as being in favor of having the stores in Tulsa close from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Armistice Day. The motion was passed. Two rather humorous letters from overseas soldiers were read. Sam Barnham, entertainment committee chairman. announced the usual Saturday night dance this week-end, with Earl Epps and his orchestra furnishing the music. He urged all to attend.

Commander Halley appointed a committee for the "Gifts for the Yanks in Hospitals" drive. They are Frank Hugill chairman, Elwood Taylor and Bob Brown.

Dick Battles, in Tulsa for a visit from his present California residence, gave us a very inspiring talk on Americanism. He mentioned our dwindling air force, and ridiculed the fact that our country was not out in front in the race for air supremacy. He said that if we want to keep our democracy, with all its glorious benefits, we must be eternally vigilant.

with all its glorious benefits, we must be eternally vigilant. SPECIAL NOTICE—Due to Armistice Day, Commander Halley announced that there would be no meeting next week.

K. O. M. E. to Present Legion Show

The Department Radio Committee, in co-operation with Central High School will present a stirring patriotic narration over KOME Saturday, November 8 at 10:30 a.m.

This program written by Gregg Chancellor, Department Radio Chairman, is entitled "The American Symphony". To quote from the script: "It is a simple symphony of courage, of faith, of sacrifice—a harmonious masterpiece of living composed by freedom loving Americans and respectfully presented by the American Lefully presented by the American Legion to a discordant world."

The program will originate from the stage of Central High School and will be dramatized by Central speech stu-dents with music provided by the school choir and organist, Frances Wellmon Anderson.

This is perhaps the most inspiring patriotic program ever presented in Tulsa and will merit you listening

THE BIG FIGHT

By JACOB STERNBACH Earl Howard, the Contender versus

Glen Coddington, the Champ

Clinton Bohannon, Referee ROUND FOUR: The boys come out fighting. They are in the center of the ring slugging away. For memberships, it is give and take. Earl and Glen give and Eddie Shields takes. Earl jabs single memberships left and right to Glen's stomach. Again and again. Glen steps back and smash! lands a terrific eighteen membership right to Earl's jaw, followed by a hard fifteen membership left to Earl's face. Earl is a little groggy. He is puffing hard. The referee takes the cigarette out of his mouth, and he stops puffing. There they go again. They are mixing it up once more. The referee steps in for the first drink. They let out a howl as they mix it again. Left! right! left! They fall into a clinch and decide to go for a drink themselves as the holl. go for a drink themselves as the bell closes the round. Glen's round by two shades. (A lampshade and a window shade).

Round Five—next week.

It is anybody's fight yet. Glen is a little ahead so far, but anything can happen. Earl seems to be holding his strength in reserve. He may let loose at any time.

Send in your memberships and help your captain win.

Admiral Chester W. Nemitz, one of the outstanding World War II leaders and life member of The American Legion, will retire from active naval duty on December 15th.
